Optional Income Rider The Income Rider is only available if the Annuitant is an Owner, unless the Owner is not a Natural Person. If the Owner is not a Natural Person, the Annuitant will be treated as the Owner for purposes of this Rider. If the Base Policy has Joint Owners, the Income Rider is only available if the Joint Owners are spouses. The Income rider is subject to a minimum issue age of 45 and benefits may begin anytime after the Owner has attained age 55.

Charge The GLWB is available for an additional rider charge equal to 1.05% assessed on the Income Account Value and deducted from the Accumulation Value. New rider fees may apply when rider is renewed.

Premium Bonus An additional one-time bonus equal to 1% of the single premium payment will be credited to the Accumulation Value and the Income Account Value on the Policy Date. The total one-time bonus will be equal to 8%.

Income Account Value The Income Account Value is used to calculate the annual GLWB once elected. It is not an amount that may be withdrawn and is not payable on death. Income Riders

Many FIAs may offer benefit riders with additional guarantee options. Some options are part of the FIA and others are optional and available for an additional stated cost. Benefit riders offer an income account value (commonly referred to as the benefit base, protected value or income base), which is not the same as the FIA accumulation value. Unlike the FIA's accumulation/account or cash value (which can be accessed at any time as a lump sum, subject to potential surrender charges), the income account value is generally not available as a lump sum withdrawal; it is used only for calculating the income amount available under the benefit rider provisions. These benefit riders often include other limitations and restrictions as well, so always review your FIA carefully.

Product features, limitations, fees and availability may vary by state.

Annuity and insurance product rates, guarantees and death benefits are based on the financial strength and claims-paying ability of the issuing company.

Early withdrawals or surrender of the annuity can result in a withdrawal or surrender charge and will be subject to ordinary income taxes. In some instances, annuities may be subject to a market value adjustment. In addition to being taxed as ordinary income, if withdrawals are taken prior to age 59 1/2, they can also be subject to a 10% federal early withdrawal tax.

Bonus annuities may include higher surrender charges, longer surrender periods, lower caps, higher spreads, or other restrictions that are not included in similar annuities that don't offer a bonus feature.
